INFORMATION FOR PERSONS APPEARING BEFORE THE ZONING HEARING BOARD

The Zoning Hearing Board is a quasi-judicial body appointed by the Township Supervisors, consisting of three (3) residents of the Township. The Board is represented by an attorney who is called the Solicitor to the Board. In general, the Zoning Hearing Board has jurisdiction in only specific areas as set forth in the Municipalities Planning Code which includes certain substantive and procedural challenges to the Township ordinances, appeals from determinations by the Zoning Officer, requests for variances, applications for special exceptions, and interpretations of land use ordinance.

The Zoning Hearing Board, within 60 days after the receipt of an application, will convene a hearing which is advertised in the newspaper, posted on the premises, and mailed to surrounding landowners. While the Zoning Hearing Board is not required to follow the formal rules of evidence in the conduct of its hearings, it generally conducts a rather formal hearing since the law requires the Board to make a stenographic record of the proceeding. Only by insisting upon some formality can the Board keep control of its hearing and produce a meaningful record as required by law.

While it is not required that an applicant or objector retain the services of an attorney to assist in the application or the hearing, each participant must be aware that neither the Zoning Hearing Board, nor its solicitor, can give legal advice to participants; nor will the Board or its solicitor attempt to "represent" or help a participant present its case.

The applicant has the burden to prove the matters asserted in the application which are being offered as justification for granting whatever relief has been requested from the Board. It is essential that applicants understand that they cannot simply come to the Board and expect the Board to tell them what to do. Likewise, the Board is not allowed by law to independently gather evidence or information. The Board is allowed only to hear and receive evidence which is under oath and subject to cross-examination.

Applicants and any persons interested in the application, whether for or against, should be aware that a hearing before the Zoning Hearing Board is not primarily for the purpose of dispensing information, but rather for the Board to receive information and evidence. Therefore, the Board cannot be questioned, nor will it respond to questions with regard to how it makes decisions. The Board is much like a court and receives whatever information is presented and renders decisions based upon the information brought to the Board. The Board is not allowed to investigate an application or to otherwise gather information, including a view of the premises in question.

INFORMATION FOR PERSONS APPEARING BEFORE THE ZONING HEARING BOARD

Applicants and other interested persons must be prepared at the time of the hearing to present whatever information or evidence they think is important to the Board's determination and to do so within the confines of a relatively formal judicial proceeding. Experience has taught the Board that it can best meet its legal obligations to remain fair and impartial and create a record if it conducts its hearings more like a court than a town meeting.

Finally, it should be noted by anyone interested in a matter pending before the Zoning Hearing Board that the Zoning Hearing Board is not the same entity as Washington Township. The Township Board of Supervisors is the legislative branch of government which writes the Township laws (ordinances). The Board of Supervisors acting through its appointed employees and officials such as the Zoning Officer, the Sewage Enforcement Officer, the Township Secretary, the Township Engineer, and the Township Solicitor, is also the executive branch of the government. The Zoning Hearing Board may be considered to be a judicial branch of the government which is separate and distinct from the Township. The Zoning Hearing Board does not write or enforce ordinances. The Zoning Hearing Board interprets the ordinances and serves as the initial avenue of appeal from certain determinations by the executive (Zoning Officer) and the legislative (Board of Supervisors) functions when they are acting in the various capacities of adopting and/or enforcing ordinances.

shall be used to pay for 1/2 of the appearance fee of the stenographer.

- (c) If the applicant appeals the decision of the Zoning Hearing Board to the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, or if the applicant requests an original transcript, the applicant shall be responsible for payment of the cost of the transcript to the stenographer. Similarly, if the Zoning Hearing Board orders a transcript, and the applicant desires a copy of it, the applicant will be responsible for the cost of the copy.
- (2) Fees to be paid by Township. The application fee paid by a zoning applicant shall not include legal expenses of the Zoning Hearing Board, expenses for engineering, architectural or other technical Consultants or expert witness costs. These costs shall be paid by the Township. In addition, the Township shall be responsible for payment of 1/2 of the appearance fee of the stenographer.
- (3) Additional costs to be paid by applicant. In the event that any initial fee paid at the time of filing of an appeal application to the Zoning Hearing Board of Washington Township, or to the Board of Supervisors of Washington Township, pursuant to the Washington Township Zoning Hearing Ordinance of 1982, as amended, and amended in its entirety by Ordinance No. 1993-4 in 1993, with subsequent amendments,⁴ is not sufficient to cover the aforesaid expenses incurred in the proceeding, the applicant shall be responsible for all additional costs in excess of $600 or $1,000, respectively, that are attributable to the expenses set forth in Subsection B(1)(b). The additional costs shall be paid to the Township within five days after notification from the Township. No permits or authorization pursuant to the Washington Township Zoning Ordinance⁵ shall be issued until all additional fees and expenses have been paid by the applicant.
- (4) Unused application fee to be refunded to applicant. In the event that there is a balance in the account of an applicant after all of the costs and expenses set forth in Subsection B(1)(b) hereof have been paid, the remaining balance in the applicant's account shall be refunded to the applicant.
